For Your Personal Breakthrough!

In person, by phone or online with Skype!

“On and off for the last 35 years, I've been giving one-on-one private sessions at a rate which depended upon my seminar teaching schedule. While writing the 7-books of the Human Hologram and preparing them for German and English publication, I have had the opportunity to give occasional private sessions to those who had requested it. With the publication of the books now complete, I am currently inspired to offer specially designed private sessions as a limited part of my formal teaching schedule.”
